(e)

On November 15, 2022, Amkor Technology, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into Executive Severance Agreements with Giel Rutten, the President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, and Megan Faust, Farshad Haghghi, and Mark Rogers, Executive Vice Presidents of the Company (collectively, the “Agreements”). In summary, if a covered executive is terminated by the Company without “Cause” (or, in the case of Mr. Rutten, by Mr. Rutten for “Good Reason”), in each case as such term is defined in the applicable Agreement, the executive is entitled to: continuation of the executive’s then-current base salary and target bonus for a 12-month period (18-months for Mr. Rutten); a pro-rata bonus for the year of termination determined based on the actual bonus, if any, the executive would have been paid for such year absent such termination; payment of health insurance premiums for 12 months (18 months for Mr. Rutten); only with respect to Mr. Rutten, 18 months of vesting acceleration for time-vesting equity awards; and payment of salary, unused vacation time, and vested benefits earned prior to termination. Under all the Agreements, in the case of a termination by the Company without Cause or a termination by the executive for Good Reason within three months prior or 24 months after a change of control of the Company, the executive is entitled to (instead of the terms described in the preceding sentence): a lump sum equal to 1.5 times the executive’s then-current base salary and target bonus (2 times for Mr. Rutten); a pro-rata target bonus for the year of termination; payment of health insurance premiums for 18 months; full vesting acceleration for time-vesting equity awards; and payment of salary, unused vacation time, and vested benefits earned prior to termination. In each case, the executive’s right to receive severance benefits is contingent upon the executive executing and not revoking a general release of claims in favor of the Company and its affiliates and the executive’s compliance with certain non-competition, non-solicitation, non-disparagement, confidentiality, and intellectual property assignment obligations.
